

- (xii) Second Schedule para 2(a), the two words "Preventing and" should be added before the word "removing".
- (xiii) Second Schedule, para 10(a) must be clear. Either we want to enforce prohibition or regulate or restrict. Both cannot be provided for.
- (xiv) Para 111. DC cannot have powers to make bye-laws. Law making power lies with Government of India. DC can issue orders/instructions on the same items by including them in paras 71/72.
- (xv) Para 112. Only amendments to the Regulation need to be placed in Parliament.
5. This issues with the approval of Secretary (TA). Minister's approval has not been taken at this juncture.

(Dr. N.K. Ghatak)
Joint Director

To

Ministry of Home Affairs,
(Smt. B. Bhamathi, Joint Secretary (UT),
North Block,
New Delhi.
Fax No.23093750/23097761.