

- (f) draw and disburse money out of the Island Council Fund; and
  - (g) exercise such other powers and discharge such other functions as may be prescribed.
- (ii) The Executive Officer shall attend every meeting of the Island Council and shall have the right to attend the meeting of a committee thereof and to take part in the discussion but shall not have the right to move resolution or to vote. If in the opinion of the Executive Officer any proposal before the Island Council is violative of or inconsistent with provisions of this Regulation or any other law, rule or order made thereunder, it shall be his duty to bring the same to the notice of the Island Council.
- 67.(i) The time and place of meeting of a Island Council and procedure for such meeting shall be such as may be prescribed.
- (ii) A member of Island Council may, at any meeting, move any resolution and put question to the Chief Captain or Vice Chief Captain on matters connected with the Administration of Island Council in the manner prescribed.
- (iii) No resolution of a Island Council shall be modified amended varied or cancelled by the Island Council within a period of three months from the date of passing thereof except by the resolution supported by two-thirds of the total number of members of Island Council.
- 68.(i) Subject to such control and restrictions as may be prescribed, an Island Council may appoint committees for exercising such of its powers and the discharging such of its duties and functions as it may specify.
- (ii) A Committee may consist of not more than five members and may be dissolved or re-consisted for such reasons and in such manner as may be prescribed.
69. No act or proceedings of a Island Council or of any of its committees shall be deemed to be invalid by reason only of the existence of any vacancy or defect in the constitution of the Island Council or of the Committee or of any infirmity in its proceedings.
- 70.(i) The Island Council shall have such power and authority as the Administrator may by order, published in Official Gazette, deem necessary and may specify so as to enable it to function as an institution of self Government in respect of the preparation of plans for economic development and social justice in relation to the matters listed in the Fifth Schedule.
- (ii) The Island Council may also make provision for carrying out within the area of its jurisdiction any other work or measure which is likely to promote the health, safety, education, comfort, convenience, social or economic well being of the persons residing in its jurisdiction and may do all things necessary for the maintenance and repair thereof and in particular may
- (a) widen, open, enlarge or otherwise improve any such road, bridge or culvert and plant and preserve trees on the sides of such roads;