

member shall record without delay the substance of the suit or case of the application in the prescribed register and obtain the signature or thumb impression of the applicant thereon.

- 82.(1) Every suit instituted before a Village Judicial council shall include the whole of the claim which the plaintiff is entitled to make in respect of the matter in dispute, but he may relinquish any portion of his claim in order to bring it within the jurisdiction of the Village Judicial Council.
- (2) If a plaintiff omits to sue in respect of or relinquishes of any portion of his claim, he shall not afterwards sue in respect of the portion so omitted or relinquished.
83. No suit shall be entertained by a Village Judicial Council after the expiry of one year from the time when the right to sue first accrued.
84. Every case or suit instituted shall be brought before the Village Judicial Council at its next sitting and the complainant or the plaintiff, as the case may be, shall, at the time of making the application, be informed of the time and place fixed for such sitting and be directed to attend at that time and place.
85. The Village Judicial Council after hearing the application shall cause a summons in the prescribed form to be served on the accused or defendant, as the case may be, requiring him to attend and produce his evidence at such time and place as may be stated in the summons and shall at the same time direct the complainant or plaintiff to attend and produce his evidence at such time and place.

Provided that the Village Judicial Council may, after hearing the application and examining the complainant or the plaintiff, refuse to issue summons and
