generate employment but also contribute towards Island economy, he added.

Touching upon other issues, the MP also thanked the Lt. Governor for issuing directions to all the departments for curtailing expenditures in the purchase of luxurious furnitures, electronic gadgets etc.

The MP was happy that with the directions of the Lt Governor of these Islands, all the three districts have reviewed the annual plan and incorporated meaningful schemes and delisted the wasteful expenditure from the annual plan 2014-15 for the betterment and all round development of these Islands. He further stated that the APWD has been asked to immediately take up all the pending PMGSY works and new works for road network and repair of existing works under Pradhan Mantri Grameen Sadak Yojna (PMGSY). Accordingly, construction of roads will be immediately taken up at Deshbandhu (Diglipur), Tugapur (Mayabunder) and Thoratang (Swadeshnagar). The MP also informed about his visit to the Civil Supplies godown at Dollygunj. He pointed out that the foodgrains at the said godown were stacked in an improper manner. The MP wanted that the senior officials should visit the godown at the earliest to see for themselves the conditions therein and bring the situation back in track so that the quality of the foodgrains is maintained.
