Dear readers,

The feedback is the main interface between HINDU ON NET and its readers, providing an opportunity to understand each other. It also helps us to know the readers' requirements and improve our presentation accordingly.

In the case of "Letters to the Editor", readers are requested to provide their complete mailing address in their email. This is mandatory for entertaining their views. Select letters will get published after suitable editing, under the section OPINION under sub-category "Letters to the Editor".

Replies to queries will be sent on a case-to-case basis.

Please mail your comments indicating clearly the subject, to;
