Sub:- Complaint of Shri V.Senthil Kumar, Social Worker regarding extension of convey time in evening up to 0830PM instead of 0600 PM - reg.,

Sir,

Please refer to your letter No. 10-12/2014-Home (Grievance) dated 05/11/2015 on the subject cited above.

An enquiry conducted into the matter has revealed that the present vehicular convey start at 0400 hours from Parlobjig No. 15 and Yeterjig No. 03 with proper briefing about the instructions to be followed by drivers and passengers of the vehicles and the convey ends at 1800 hours.

During emergency, vehicles are allowed through Jarawa reserve in the night hours from the check post with proper police guard, after verifying the facts and obtaining permission from the senior officers.

It is a fact that due to breakdown of ferry services, the passengers from Port Blair cannot follow the last convey i.e, 1800 hours however, after verifying the tickets, TR etc., the Police staff allows the vehicles for passing through Jarawa reserve upto JPP Parlobjig No. 15 from Yeterjig Camp No. 3 and vice versa with proper police guard.

If the vehicular convey is permitted upto 2030 hrs. then, in case of any accident, breakdown of vehicles or any emergency, it would take time for providing assistance in the night hours in the Jarawa reserve area for evacuating the casualties etc.,. There is no connectivity in the Jarawa reserve areas, if such emergency situation prevails, then there would be bewilderment among the
