Port Blair dated the 11th July, 2016

ORDER 267

WHEREAS, requests have been received from many stakeholders for allowing the dead body to cross the Jarawa Reserve through ATR without convoy for performing the last rites by the family members.

AND WHEREAS, the Andaman and Nicobar Police has also sought clarification whether or not the dead body may be allowed to cross the Jarawa Reserve area through ATR without convoy on requests made by the family members of the deceased.

NOW THEREFORE, the competent authority, after careful consideration of the requests, has decided to allow transportation of the dead body to cross Jarawa reserve area without convoy on humanitarian ground, with following conditions :-

1. The dead body shall be transported in Hearse/Mortuary Van/Private vehicle under proper police escort by the close relative /kith and kin of the deceased.
2. Only one such vehicle shall be allowed at a time for carrying the dead body with closed relative/kith and kin of the deceased and the Andaman & Nicobar Police shall keep a record of number of such cases allowed every month.

The other terms and conditions stipulated in the Addendum No.1-836/2012-TW/501 dated 10.6.2016 shall remain unchanged.
