Convoy timing for ATR revised

Port Blair, Sept. 13

The general public and commuters travelling in Andaman Trunk Road from Jirkatang to Middle Strait and vice-versa have been informed that the Administration has re-scheduled the convoy timing. Accordingly, the first convoy from Jirkatang will be at 6 am while from Middle Strait it will be at 6.30 am. Similarly, the second convoy from Jirkatang will be at 9 am while from Middle Strait it will be at 9.30 am. The third convoy from Jirkatang will be at 1200 hrs while from Middle Strait it will be at 1230 hrs. The fourth convoy from Jirkatang will be at 2.30 pm while from Middle Strait it will be at 3 pm.

Meanwhile, the earlier restriction of next day return of the vehicles from Jirkatang to Middle Strait and vice-versa has been removed and now the vehicles can return on the same day. The permit fee charged by the Police Department for providing police escort will not be collected from the vehicles travelling on the above route.

It is warned that violating the convoy system and interacting with the tribals on the road will be dealt seriously and action against vehicle owner/driver shall be initiated including impounding of the vehicles under the relevant rules. All these decisions shall be implemented from 25th Sept., 2011, a communication received here from Director (TW) said.

VKV celebrates Universal Brotherhood Day

Port Blair, Sept. 13

To commemorate the epoch making speech by Swami Vivekananda in the World Parliament of Religions, Chicago on 11th September 1893, Vivekananda Kendra Vidyalaya, Lambaline celebrated Universal Brotherhood Day in the Vidyalaya premises. Swami Amaratayananda Maharaj, Secretary, Ramkrishna Mission was the chief guest on the occasion. In his address Swamiji laid emphasize on the teachings of Swami Vivekananda and its relevance in today's life. The Vidyalaya students presented a brief cultural programme befitting the occasion. Earlier, the Principal of the Vidyalaya welcomed the gathering. The programme came to an end with vote of thanks proposed by the Vice-Principal.
