DO Letter No. Tasaka.aa.pope.c.r-1/2010-11 dated 27.01.2011

In letters referred at (3) and (4), the staff of Forest Rights department has sought strict orders to be issued to concerned forest officials who are not cooperating for survey work being conducted under Forest Rights Act.

Clear instructions have already been issued to all Range Forest Officers to extend full support to Forest Rights Committee and Social Welfare Officer for conducting survey under Forest Rights Act.

The Range Forest Officer of Anechowkur Wildlife range, could not participate in the survey on 19th of January, 2011 due to the death of a person in an elephant attack at

Cheni Hadju Haadi. He has attended the survey on all the other days. The Range Forest Officers of Anechowkur and Kallahalla Wildlife ranges, have submitted reports referred at (1) and (2) above, on the GPS survey conducted by Forest department along with Virajpet Taluk Social Welfare Officer, and officers of Revenue department in
