

PERSONNEL POLICY

1. Has the State Government a well-considered personnel policy for TSP areas in the light of the fact that the tribal areas are generally difficult and lack modern and urban facilities and even communications are inadequate? If so, please enunciate it.

No such policy exists.

2. Does the personnel policy envisage-

(a) Emphasis on recruitment of selection of suitable persons of all departments with proper qualifications and aptitude for working among tribal people and tribal areas?

Yes

(b) Grant of incentives to those belonging to concerned departments posted in TSP areas? If so, furnish details.

No

(c) Certain stipulations at the time of appointment, deputations etc. like minimum tenure for three or five years for working in tribal areas?

No

(d) Certain of sub-cadres in the concerned departments of personnel for tribal areas?

No

(e) Inclusion of the subject of tribal development in the academic and training courses of the concerned departments?

No

Please consult the Maheshwar Prasad Committee report (1979) of the Department of Personnel, Ministry of Home Affairs, in this regard. At the same time, give a full account of the policy being followed by the State Government.

This is related to Tribal welfare department.
