

Planning Commission and the action taken on them, in case they have conducted study/studies in your state

Not applicable to this department.

5. Has action taken on the conclusions of these studies resulted in the reformation of the system and better availment of benefits to the targeted sections? Have they led to improvement of the delivery system? Please furnish details

Such studies have not been done by Forest Department.

6. Does the State Government consider that the TSP strategy has delivered goods to the people? If so please substantiate with facts and figures? If not, please give a full critique- TSP Strategy ensure that specific allocation of fund is made available to implementing agency which is utilized and TSP only.

TSP strategy have been fruitful as it ensures the fund flow in tribal areas for development purposes.

7. If the State Government considers the TSP strategy has not been fully successful, please suggest alternative viable methods and strategies.

TSP strategy has been successful so far.

8. Has any analysis made of the expenditure for each of the Five Year Plan period (Fifth to Ninth) incurred on :-

- a. The group, as a whole of family-benefiting sectors like agriculture, horticulture, animal husbandry, village small and cottage industries etc.
- b. The group of social service sectors like education, health, drinking water supply, housing, sanitation.
- c. The group of infrastructure sectors like roads and bridges, irrigation and power, major and medium industries.

Such analysis have not been done by Forest Department

9. If so, please give the results of such analysis. In particular, the Commission would like to know what have been the percentages of outlay inter-se among the three groups of sectors. If not done already, please undertake the calculations ensure.

Not applicable to forest department

10. Have the outlays in the group (a), which are production sectors, made any impact in raising productivity levels in each of the sectors and increase in income levels? Can the results be substantiated with facts and figures?

Not applicable to Forest department