

50. It is further understood that village committees exist headed by Sirdars and directly linked to the ADCs. Are there no authorities in between? Please clarify, elaborating the position.	-do-
51. Does the State Government feel the need for introduction of the Panchayat system in the state?	-do-
52. Some male contenders in the matrilineal Khasi, Garo and Jaintia societies have been demanding equal rights in inheritance of property along with the daughters. The village durbar arranges all affairs of the village in accordance with traditional customs, while the women have kept away from the political scene. Any amendment in the customary-law is likely to meet resistance. Please communicate the views of the State Government for resolving the conflict situation.	-do-
Mizoram
53. In addition to the three ADCs, one each mentioned in the Sixth Schedule for the Chakma District, the Mara District and the Lai District, are there any regional councils? Please describe the full set-up in the state with their jurisdiction, functions and performance.	-do-
54. Do the State Government feel the need for introduction of the Panchayat system as per Article 243 and PESA Act 1996? A positive or negative reply may be substantiated with reasons.	-do-
Tripura
55. The Tripura Tribal Areas District came into being in the early eighties. What has been the experience of the ADC and of the State Government?	-do-
56. In the view of the State Government, what have been the functions and performance of the ADC? Does the ADC measure up to the expectations?	-do-