

We request you to urgently look into these matters and ensure that:

- Immediate steps are taken for the implementation of the May 2002 orders of the Hon. Supreme Court
- Environmental clearance is mandated before the administration can embark on projects with a potential for damaging vital natural resources
- The Jarawa Policy is rigorously implemented and the rights and survival of the Jarawa made a priority issue

Yours sincerely,

Samir Acharya
Society for Andaman and Nicobar Ecology,
P. B. No.-6, Middle Point
Port Blair, A & N Islands - 744101
E-mail: sane@andamanisles.com

Pankaj Sekhsaria
Kalpavriksh Environmental Action Group
Author of Troubled Islands, 2003
E-mail: pankajs@vsnl.com
Dr. Madhusree Mukherjee
Author of Land of Naked People, 2003
E-mail: lopchu@att.net

Dr. Sita Venkateswar
Anthropologist and Senior Lecturer, Massey University, New Zealand
Author of Development and Ethnocide: Colonial Practices in the Andaman Islands, 2004
E-mail: S.Venkateswar@massey.ac.nz

Dr. Simron Singh
Research Fellow, IFF Dept. of Social Ecology, Austria
Author of In the Sea of Influence: A World System Perspective of the Nicobar Islands, 2003
E-mail: Simron.Singh@uni-klu.ac.at