

been difficult for the respondent Administration to provide them all sorts of assistance and help at this point of time as they are fully equipped in terms of infrastructure and funds. I say that the respondents and their agencies concerned have miserably failed either in providing them security and help within their area or now when they are waiting for the same and showing willingness to accepted. As such they have failed to carry out their statutory duty.

Dones

9. Your petitioner states that instead of detecting the actual problem of the aboriginal JARAWAS which was the bounded duty of the respondent Administration they slept over the matter without providing them sufficient scope for their food by way plantation of various fruit bearing trees like banana, coconut etc. Not only that Bush police who are posted in JARAWA areas so that outsiders may not disturb them, totally failed to discharge their duty by illegal gratification receiving from encroacher and