Segregation

respondent Administration is not taking care of those poor people providing them what they need and in the event the respondents are of the opinion that the aboriginal JARAWAS should be kept in segregation so that they may extinct, in that event also much more steps must be taken providing them at least the food & water so they may not die in starvation and also giving the fruits of modern medicine for the diseases they are suffering from. However, your petitioner did not think that the aboriginal JARAWAS should be kept as museum species, after all they are human beings having all feelings of pain and joy that all of us have and more so they are no more furious and / or violent, rather they are friendly to the civilized people. Most Important thing is that they are not at all uninvited guests but we have been trying to attract them for years together to come in contact with the civilized world. They have equal rights like any other citizen of India for protection of life and personal liberty and the State is under constitutional obligation to follow certain policy for them raising the level of nutrition and the
