

tribals. been in the past, of imposing urbanisation on the indigenous adequately. There is no intention at present, nor has there The above explanatory note should clarify the position important ingredient of national security. Sentinel shall continue from time to time as this is an Sentinel Island. Patrolling of the waters around North Police, as felt necessary for the security of the isolated patrolling by Navy, Coast Guard and the Andaman & Nicobar be done in a manner consistent with such safeguards as 95 is proposed to be maintained. At the same time this would present policy of discontinuing contact with them since 1994- In so far as the Sentinelese are concerned, the approach. anthropology, sociology and tribal welfare for modulating its The Administration keeps in touch with experts of back to their habitat.

some work has above, they are given food items and sent them to staging huts in their area when they come and after this end we have teams of social workers and police who take to prevent their mixing with local population and to (d) to teach them fishing by use of nets; plant fruit trees etc to which they are used to; (c) to enrich the Jarawa area by teaching the Jarawas to this direction and a dictionary has already been prepared; (b) to understand the spoken dialect of Jarawas. The Central Institute of Indian Languages, Mysore has worked in

What the Administration is doing at present is