

... ..

... ..

During the return journey between Middle Brook and Draxing on 17th January 2010, a single unescorted Jarawa was interacting freely with tourists waiting for the convoy to depart from Middle Brook and he was also seen by the Respondent to be mobbed by a group of tourists and receive a line of money for joy from Amkeang at 0800hrs. Further along the road, after the convoy had departed, 2 vehicles were spotted parked along the road within a proximity of approximately 1000 meters from a group of 3 Jarawa youths and the driver of one of vehicles was changing a tyre and the other had emptied from their vehicle a distance was no police escort in this supposedly 'regulated' Jarawa, ...

