

568
(2)

	(5) If the unauthorized entry into “reserved area” is found to be for the purpose of encroaching, hunting or poaching from the said area, the same shall be punishable with imprisonment which may extend to three years and with fine. (6) If the unauthorized entry into “reserved area” is found to be for the purpose of introducing any form of alcohol or any highly inflammable or explosive substance or any form of alien biological germ, bacteria or virus to the “aboriginal tribe”, the same shall be punishable with imprisonment which may extend to seven years and with fine.
	(7) Whoever, in contravention of a notification regarding “buffer zone” issued under section 3, setup “Commercial and Tourist activities/Establishments” in the buffer zone shall be punishable with imprisonment which may extend to three years and with fine.
	(8) If any person / agency promotes tourism activities through any advertisement about aboriginal tribe directly or indirectly, the same shall be punishable with imprisonment, which may extend to three years and with fine.

Pratibha Devi Singh Patil
President

Secretary to the Govt. of India
(T2/ PAT Draft – corrected 3.6.2011)