(55)

Draft 12 02 11 F.No.1-752/2009-TW/Vol-III

Para wise comments on the additional affidavit filed by the respondent pursuant to Order of the Hon'ble Supreme Court dated 15-12-2010 are as under:-

Baratang and idle Andaman comes, vide Note dated 7 th Dec 2010, authorised Tehsildar, Rangat to close all the operational commercial and tourist establishments and the restaurants whose bar licences were already already factual position as directed by this Hon'ble Court's order dated 3rd December 2010 vide our affidavit filed on 13th Dec 2010. The Respondent raised certain issue during the hearing on 15th Dec 2010 on which the Hon'ble Court has given them 6 weeks time to file an additional affidavit. But now the Respondent rather going on the specific issues, have gone on creating a story, false allegations and raising again the issues related to the normal activities of villages falling within the Buffer Zone. The Petitioners have already given a detailed picture of ground reality in para 9 to14 of our affidavit dated 13th Dec 2010 and nothing has changed on ground as far as the normal life of the villages and settlers living within the Buffer Zone is concerned. The names of tourist establishments, liquour vendors and restaurants whose bars were cancelled earlier, were closed after Hon'ble Courts directive of 3rd Dec 2010 and a details were provided in para 17 of our affidavit dated 13th Dec 2010. The closure notices issued to some establishments in the said Buffer Zone by the Tehsildar, Rangat stated in Para 3 of the affidavit dated 25th Dec 2010 by the Respondents were wrongly issued and they were subsequently withdrawn and clarification were issued by the A & N Administration to bring normalcy in the life of the settlers who are living here for more than 40-50 years. In para 15 of our affidavit of 13th Dec 2010 we have also provided the status of nature based tourism activities in the buffer zone, which are regulated. Para – 4 As per the Order dated 3-12-2010 passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, Deputy Commissioner (North and Middle Andmans), under whose administrative jurisdiction the Buffer Zone falling in the islands of Baratang and idle Andaman comes, vide Note dated 7th Dec 2010, authorised Tehsildar, Rangat to close all the operational commercial and tourist establishments and the restaurants whose bar licences were 'already already	Para-	We have given a detailed reply and a statement of dated 3rd December 2010 vide our affidavit inled of 15m Dec 2010. The Respondent raised certain issue during the hearing on 15m Dec 2010 on which the Hon'ble Court has given them 6 weeks time to file an additional affidavit. But now the Respondent rather going on the specific issues, have gone on creating a story, false allegations and raising again the issues related to the normal activities of villages falling within the Buffer Zone. The Petitioners have already given a detailed picture of ground reality in para 9 to 14 of our affidavit dated 13th Dec 2010 and nothing has changed on ground as far as the normal life of the villages and settlers living within the Buffer Zone is concerned. The names of tourist establishments, liquour vendors and restaurants whose bars were cancelled earlier, were closed after Hon'ble Courts directive of 3rd Dec 2010 and a details were provided in para 17 of our affidavit dated 13th Dec 2010. The closure notices issued to some establishments in the said Buffer Zone by the Tehsildar, Rangat stated in Para 3 of the affidavit dated 25th Dec 2010 by the Respondents were wrongly issued and they were subsequently withdrawn and clarification were issued by the A & N Administration to bring normalcy in the life of the settlers who are living here for more than 40-50 years. In para 15 of our affidavit of 13th Dec 2010 we have also provided the status of nature based tourism activities in the buffer zone, which are regulated. Para - 4 As per the Order dated 3-12-2010 passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, Deputy Commissioner (North and Middle Andmans), under whose administrative jurisdiction the Buffer Zone falling in the islands of Baratang and idle Andmanan comes, vide Note dated 7th Dec 2010, authorised Tehsildar, Rangat to close all the operational commercial and tourist establishments and the restaurants whose bar licences were already already	2000 2000000000000000000000000000000000	factual position as directed by this Hon'ble Court's order
Dec 2010. The Respondent raised certain issue during the hearing on 15th Dec 2010 on which the Hon'ble Court has given them 6 weeks time to file an additional affidavit. But now the Respondent rather going on the specific issues, have gone on creating a story, false allegations and raising again the issues related to the normal activities of villages falling within the Buffer Zone. The Petitioners have already given a detailed picture of ground reality in para 9 to14 of our affidavit dated 13th Dec 2010 and nothing has changed on ground as far as the normal life of the villages and settlers living within the Buffer Zone is concerned. The names of tourist establishments, liquour vendors and restaurants whose bars were cancelled earlier, were closed after Hon'ble Courts directive of 3rd Dec 2010 and a details were provided in para 17 of our affidavit dated 13th Dec 2010. The closure notices issued to some establishments in the said Buffer Zone by the Tehsildar, Rangat stated in Para 3 of the affidavit dated 25th Dec 2010 by the Respondents were wrongly issued and they were subsequently withdrawn and clarification were issued by the A & N Administration to bring normalcy in the life of the settlers who are living here for more than 40-50 years. In para 15 of our affidavit of 13th Dec 2010 we have also provided the status of nature based tourism activities in the buffer zone, which are regulated. Para - 4 As per the Order dated 3-12-2010 passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, Deputy Commissioner (North and Middle Andmans), under whose administrative jurisdiction the Buffer Zone falling in the islands of Baratang and idle Andaman comes, vide Note dated 7th Dec 2010, authorised Tehsildar, Rangat to close all the operational commercial and tourist establishments and the restaurants whose bar licences were already already		deted 3rd December 2010 vide our amazvit med on 15
the hearing on 15th Dec 2010 on which the Holinber Court has given them 6 weeks time to file an additional affidavit. But now the Respondent rather going on the specific issues, have gone on creating a story, false allegations and raising again the issues related to the normal activities of villages falling within the Buffer Zone. The Petitioners have already given a detailed picture of ground reality in para 9 to 14 of our affidavit dated 13th Dec 2010 and nothing has changed on ground as far as the normal life of the villages and settlers living within the Buffer Zone is concerned. The names of tourist establishments, liquour vendors and restaurants whose bars were cancelled earlier, were closed after Hon'ble Courts directive of 3rd Dec 2010 and a details were provided in para 17 of our affidavit dated 13th Dec 2010. The closure notices issued to some establishments in the said Buffer Zone by the Tehsildar, Rangat stated in Para 3 of the affidavit dated 25th Dec 2010 by the Respondents were wrongly issued and they were subsequently withdrawn and clarification were issued by the A & N Administration to bring normalcy in the life of the settlers who are living here for more than 40-50 years. In para 15 of our affidavit of 13th Dec 2010 we have also provided the status of nature based tourism activities in the buffer zone, which are regulated. Para - 4 As per the Order dated 3-12-2010 passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, Deputy Commissioner (North and Middle Andmans), under whose administrative jurisdiction the Buffer Zone falling in the islands of Baratang and idle Andmanan comes, vide Note dated 7th Dec 2010, authorised Tehsildar, Rangat to close all the operational commercial and tourist establishments and the restaurants whose bar licences were already already		Dog 2010. The Respondent raised certain issue during
Court has given them 6 weeks time to file an additional affidavit. But now the Respondent rather going on the specific issues, have gone on creating a story, false allegations and raising again the issues related to the normal activities of villages falling within the Buffer Zone. The Petitioners have already given a detailed picture of ground reality in para 9 to 14 of our affidavit dated 13th Dec 2010 and nothing has changed on ground as far as the normal life of the villages and settlers living within the Buffer Zone is concerned. The names of tourist establishments, liquour vendors and restaurants whose bars were cancelled earlier, were closed after Hon'ble Courts directive of 3rd Dec 2010 and a details were provided in para 17 of our affidavit dated 13th Dec 2010. The closure notices issued to some establishments in the said Buffer Zone by the Tehsildar, Rangat stated in Para 3 of the affidavit dated 25th Dec 2010 by the Respondents were wrongly issued and they were subsequently withdrawn and clarification were issued by the A & N Administration to bring normalcy in the life of the settlers who are living here for more than 40-50 years. In para 15 of our affidavit of 13th Dec 2010 we have also provided the status of nature based tourism activities in the buffer zone, which are regulated. Para - 4 As per the Order dated 3-12-2010 passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, Deputy Commissioner (North and Middle Andmans), under whose administrative jurisdiction the Buffer Zone falling in the islands of Baratang and idle Andaman comes, vide Note dated 7th Dec 2010, authorised Tehsildar, Rangat to close all the operational commercial and tourist establishments and the restaurants whose bar licences were already already		Dec 2010. The Respondent reason which the Hon'ble affidavit. But now the Respondent rather going on the specific issues, have gone on creating a story, false allegations and raising again the issues related to the normal activities of villages falling within the Buffer Zone. The Petitioners have already given a detailed picture of ground reality in para 9 to 14 of our affidavit dated 13th Dec 2010 and nothing has changed on ground as far as the normal life of the villages and settlers living within the Buffer Zone is concerned. The names of tourist establishments, liquour vendors and restaurants whose bars were cancelled earlier, were closed after Hon'ble Courts directive of 3rd Dec 2010 and a details were provided in para 17 of our affidavit dated 13th Dec 2010. The closure notices issued to some establishments in the said Buffer Zone by the Tehsildar, Rangat stated in Para 3 of the affidavit dated 25th Dec 2010 by the Respondents were wrongly issued and they were subsequently withdrawn and clarification were issued by the A & N Administration to bring normalcy in the life of the settlers who are living here for more than 40-50 years. In para 15 of our affidavit of 13th Dec 2010 we have also provided the status of nature based tourism activities in the buffer zone, which are regulated. Para - 4 As per the Order dated 3-12-2010 passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, Deputy Commissioner (North and Middle Andmans), under whose administrative jurisdiction the Buffer Zone falling in the islands of Baratang and idle Andaman comes, vide Note dated 7th Dec 2010, authorised Tehsildar, Rangat to close all the operational commercial and tourist establishments and the restaurants whose bar licences were already already		the hearing on 15th Dec 2010 on which the an additional specific issues, have gone on creating a story, lease allegations and raising again the issues related to the normal activities of villages falling within the Buffer Zone. The Petitioners have already given a detailed picture of ground reality in para 9 to 14 of our affidavit dated 13th Dec 2010 and nothing has changed on ground as far as the normal life of the villages and settlers living within the Buffer Zone is concerned. The names of tourist establishments, liquour vendors and restaurants whose bars were cancelled earlier, were closed after Hon'ble Courts directive of 3rd Dec 2010 and a details were provided in para 17 of our affidavit dated 13th Dec 2010. The closure notices issued to some establishments in the said Buffer Zone by the Tehsildar, Rangat stated in Para 3 of the affidavit dated 25th Dec 2010 by the Respondents were wrongly issued and they were subsequently withdrawn and clarification were issued by the A & N Administration to bring normalcy in the life of the settlers who are living here for more than 40-50 years. In para 15 of our affidavit of 13th Dec 2010 we have also provided the status of nature based tourism activities in the buffer zone, which are regulated. Para - 4 As per the Order dated 3-12-2010 passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, Deputy Commissioner (North and Middle Andmans), under whose administrative jurisdiction the Buffer Zone falling in the islands of Baratang and idle Andaman comes, vide Note dated 7th Dec 2010, authorised Tehsildar, Rangat to close all the operational commercial and tourist establishments and the restaurants whose bar licences were already already		Court has given them o weeks time to me an additional specific issues, have gone on creating a story, lease allegations and raising again the issues related to the normal activities of villages falling within the Buffer Zone. The Petitioners have already given a detailed picture of ground reality in para 9 to 14 of our affidavit dated 13th Dec 2010 and nothing has changed on ground as far as the normal life of the villages and settlers living within the Buffer Zone is concerned. The names of tourist establishments, liquour vendors and restaurants whose bars were cancelled earlier, were closed after Hon'ble Courts directive of 3rd Dec 2010 and a details were provided in para 17 of our affidavit dated 13th Dec 2010. The closure notices issued to some establishments in the said Buffer Zone by the Tehsildar, Rangat stated in Para 3 of the affidavit dated 25th Dec 2010 by the Respondents were wrongly issued and they were subsequently withdrawn and clarification were issued by the A & N Administration to bring normalcy in the life of the settlers who are living here for more than 40-50 years. In para 15 of our affidavit of 13th Dec 2010 we have also provided the status of nature based tourism activities in the buffer zone, which are regulated. Para - 4 As per the Order dated 3-12-2010 passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, Deputy Commissioner (North and Middle Andmans), under whose administrative jurisdiction the Buffer Zone falling in the islands of Baratang and idle Andaman comes, vide Note dated 7th Dec 2010, authorised Tehsildar, Rangat to close all the operational commercial and tourist establishments and the restaurants whose bar licences were already already		affidavit. But now the Respondent rather going on the allegations and raising again the issues felated to the normal activities of villages falling within the Buffer Zone. The Petitioners have already given a detailed picture of ground reality in para 9 to 14 of our affidavit dated 13th Dec 2010 and nothing has changed on ground as far as the normal life of the villages and settlers living within the Buffer Zone is concerned. The names of tourist establishments, liquour vendors and restaurants whose bars were cancelled earlier, were closed after Hon'ble Courts directive of 3rd Dec 2010 and a details were provided in para 17 of our affidavit dated 13th Dec 2010. The closure notices issued to some establishments in the said Buffer Zone by the Tehsildar, Rangat stated in Para 3 of the affidavit dated 25th Dec 2010 by the Respondents were wrongly issued and they were subsequently withdrawn and clarification were issued by the A & N Administration to bring normalcy in the life of the settlers who are living here for more than 40-50 years. In para 15 of our affidavit of 13th Dec 2010 we have also provided the status of nature based tourism activities in the buffer zone, which are regulated. Para - 4 As per the Order dated 3-12-2010 passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, Deputy Commissioner (North and Middle Andmans), under whose administrative jurisdiction the Buffer Zone falling in the islands of Baratang and idle Andaman comes, vide Note dated 7th Dec 2010, authorised Tehsildar, Rangat to close all the operational commercial and tourist establishments and the restaurants whose bar licences were already already		anacific issues have gone on creating a story, teres normal activities of villages falling within the Bullet Zone. The Petitioners have already given a detailed picture of ground reality in para 9 to 14 of our affidavit dated 13th Dec 2010 and nothing has changed on ground as far as the normal life of the villages and settlers living within the Buffer Zone is concerned. The names of tourist establishments, liquour vendors and restaurants whose bars were cancelled earlier, were closed after Hon'ble Courts directive of 3rd Dec 2010 and a details were provided in para 17 of our affidavit dated 13th Dec 2010. The closure notices issued to some establishments in the said Buffer Zone by the Tehsildar, Rangat stated in Para 3 of the affidavit dated 25th Dec 2010 by the Respondents were wrongly issued and they were subsequently withdrawn and clarification were issued by the A & N Administration to bring normalcy in the life of the settlers who are living here for more than 40-50 years. In para 15 of our affidavit of 13th Dec 2010 we have also provided the status of nature based tourism activities in the buffer zone, which are regulated. Para - 4 As per the Order dated 3-12-2010 passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, Deputy Commissioner (North and Middle Andmans), under whose administrative jurisdiction the Buffer Zone falling in the islands of Baratang and idle Andaman comes, vide Note dated 7th Dec 2010, authorised Tehsildar, Rangat to close all the operational commercial and tourist establishments and the restaurants whose bar licences were already already		allegations and raising again the issues related to the Zone. The Petitioners have already given a detailed picture of ground reality in para 9 to14 of our affidavit dated 13th Dec 2010 and nothing has changed on ground as far as the normal life of the villages and settlers living within the Buffer Zone is concerned. The names of tourist establishments, liquour vendors and restaurants whose bars were cancelled earlier, were closed after Hon'ble Courts directive of 3rd Dec 2010 and a details were provided in para 17 of our affidavit dated 13th Dec 2010. The closure notices issued to some establishments in the said Buffer Zone by the Tehsildar, Rangat stated in Para 3 of the affidavit dated 25th Dec 2010 by the Respondents were wrongly issued and they were subsequently withdrawn and clarification were issued by the A & N Administration to bring normalcy in the life of the settlers who are living here for more than 40-50 years. In para 15 of our affidavit of 13th Dec 2010 we have also provided the status of nature based tourism activities in the buffer zone, which are regulated. Para - 4 As per the Order dated 3-12-2010 passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, Deputy Commissioner (North and Middle Andmans), under whose administrative jurisdiction the Buffer Zone falling in the islands of Baratang and idle Andaman comes, vide Note dated 7th Dec 2010, authorised Tehsildar, Rangat to close all the operational commercial and tourist establishments and the restaurants whose bar licences were already already		normal activities of villages falling within the built-picture of ground reality in para 9 to 14 of our affidavit dated 13th Dec 2010 and nothing has changed on ground as far as the normal life of the villages and settlers living within the Buffer Zone is concerned. The names of tourist establishments, liquour vendors and restaurants whose bars were cancelled earlier, were closed after Hon'ble Courts directive of 3rd Dec 2010 and a details were provided in para 17 of our affidavit dated 13th Dec 2010. The closure notices issued to some establishments in the said Buffer Zone by the Tehsildar, Rangat stated in Para 3 of the affidavit dated 25th Dec 2010 by the Respondents were wrongly issued and they were subsequently withdrawn and clarification were issued by the A & N Administration to bring normalcy in the life of the settlers who are living here for more than 40-50 years. In para 15 of our affidavit of 13th Dec 2010 we have also provided the status of nature based tourism activities in the buffer zone, which are regulated. Para - 4 As per the Order dated 3-12-2010 passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, Deputy Commissioner (North and Middle Andmans), under whose administrative jurisdiction the Buffer Zone falling in the islands of Baratang and idle Andaman comes, vide Note dated 7th Dec 2010, authorised Tehsildar, Rangat to close all the operational commercial and tourist establishments and the restaurants whose bar licences were already already		Zone The Petitioners have already given a detailed dated 13th Dec 2010 and nothing has changed on ground as far as the normal life of the villages and settlers living within the Buffer Zone is concerned. The names of tourist establishments, liquour vendors and restaurants whose bars were cancelled earlier, were closed after Hon'ble Courts directive of 3rd Dec 2010 and a details were provided in para 17 of our affidavit dated 13th Dec 2010. The closure notices issued to some establishments in the said Buffer Zone by the Tehsildar, Rangat stated in Para 3 of the affidavit dated 25th Dec 2010 by the Respondents were wrongly issued and they were subsequently withdrawn and clarification were issued by the A & N Administration to bring normalcy in the life of the settlers who are living here for more than 40-50 years. In para 15 of our affidavit of 13th Dec 2010 we have also provided the status of nature based tourism activities in the buffer zone, which are regulated. Para - 4 Para - 4		ricture of ground reality in para 9 to 14 of our affidavit ground as far as the normal life of the villages and settlers living within the Buffer Zone is concerned. The names of tourist establishments, liquour vendors and restaurants whose bars were cancelled earlier, were closed after Hon'ble Courts directive of 3rd Dec 2010 and a details were provided in para 17 of our affidavit dated 13th Dec 2010. The closure notices issued to some establishments in the said Buffer Zone by the Tehsildar, Rangat stated in Para 3 of the affidavit dated 25th Dec 2010 by the Respondents were wrongly issued and they were subsequently withdrawn and clarification were issued by the A & N Administration to bring normalcy in the life of the settlers who are living here for more than 40-50 years. In para 15 of our affidavit of 13th Dec 2010 we have also provided the status of nature based tourism activities in the buffer zone, which are regulated. Para - 4 As per the Order dated 3-12-2010 passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, Deputy Commissioner (North and Middle Andmans), under whose administrative jurisdiction the Buffer Zone falling in the islands of Baratang and idle Andaman comes, vide Note dated 7th Dec 2010, authorised Tehsildar, Rangat to close all the operational commercial and tourist establishments and the restaurants whose bar licences were already already		picture of ground reality in parallel 12th Dec 2010 and nothing has changed on settlers living within the Buffer Zone is concerned. The names of tourist establishments, liquour vendors and restaurants whose bars were cancelled earlier, were closed after Hon'ble Courts directive of 3rd Dec 2010 and a details were provided in para 17 of our affidavit dated 13th Dec 2010. The closure notices issued to some establishments in the said Buffer Zone by the Tehsildar, Rangat stated in Para 3 of the affidavit dated 25th Dec 2010 by the Respondents were wrongly issued and they were subsequently withdrawn and clarification were issued by the A & N Administration to bring normalcy in the life of the settlers who are living here for more than 40-50 years. In para 15 of our affidavit of 13th Dec 2010 we have also provided the status of nature based tourism activities in the buffer zone, which are regulated. Para - 4 As per the Order dated 3-12-2010 passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, Deputy Commissioner (North and Middle Andmans), under whose administrative jurisdiction the Buffer Zone falling in the islands of Baratang and idle Andaman comes, vide Note dated 7th Dec 2010, authorised Tehsildar, Rangat to close all the operational commercial and tourist establishments and the restaurants whose bar licences were already already	,	dated 15th Dec 2010 and nothing the villages and names of tourist establishments, liquour vendors and restaurants whose bars were cancelled earlier, were closed after Hon'ble Courts directive of 3rd Dec 2010 and a details were provided in para 17 of our affidavit dated 13th Dec 2010. The closure notices issued to some establishments in the said Buffer Zone by the Tehsildar, Rangat stated in Para 3 of the affidavit dated 25th Dec 2010 by the Respondents were wrongly issued and they were subsequently withdrawn and clarification were issued by the A & N Administration to bring normalcy in the life of the settlers who are living here for more than 40-50 years. In para 15 of our affidavit of 13th Dec 2010 we have also provided the status of nature based tourism activities in the buffer zone, which are regulated. Para - 4 As per the Order dated 3-12-2010 passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, Deputy Commissioner (North and Middle Andmans), under whose administrative jurisdiction the Buffer Zone falling in the islands of Baratang and idle Andaman comes, vide Note dated 7th Dec 2010, authorised Tehsildar, Rangat to close all the operational commercial and tourist establishments and the restaurants whose bar licences were already already		ground as far as the horizon in concerned. The restaurants whose bars were cancelled earlier, were closed after Hon'ble Courts directive of 3rd Dec 2010 and a details were provided in para 17 of our affidavit dated 13th Dec 2010. The closure notices issued to some establishments in the said Buffer Zone by the Tehsildar, Rangat stated in Para 3 of the affidavit dated 25th Dec 2010 by the Respondents were wrongly issued and they were subsequently withdrawn and clarification were issued by the A & N Administration to bring normalcy in the life of the settlers who are living here for more than 40-50 years. In para 15 of our affidavit of 13th Dec 2010 we have also provided the status of nature based tourism activities in the buffer zone, which are regulated. Para – 4 As per the Order dated 3-12-2010 passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, Deputy Commissioner (North and Middle Andmans), under whose administrative jurisdiction the Buffer Zone falling in the islands of Baratang and idle Andaman comes, vide Note dated 7th Dec 2010, authorised Tehsildar, Rangat to close all the operational commercial and tourist establishments and the restaurants whose bar licences were already already		settlers living within the Buller Zone is concerned. The restaurants whose bars were cancelled earlier, were closed after Hon'ble Courts directive of 3rd Dec 2010 and a details were provided in para 17 of our affidavit dated 13th Dec 2010. The closure notices issued to some establishments in the said Buffer Zone by the Tehsildar, Rangat stated in Para 3 of the affidavit dated 25th Dec 2010 by the Respondents were wrongly issued and they were subsequently withdrawn and clarification were issued by the A & N Administration to bring normalcy in the life of the settlers who are living here for more than 40-50 years. In para 15 of our affidavit of 13th Dec 2010 we have also provided the status of nature based tourism activities in the buffer zone, which are regulated. Para – 4 As per the Order dated 3-12-2010 passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, Deputy Commissioner (North and Middle Andmans), under whose administrative jurisdiction the Buffer Zone falling in the islands of Baratang and idle Andaman comes, vide Note dated 7th Dec 2010, authorised Tehsildar, Rangat to close all the		names of tourist establishments, liquour vehicles and closed after Hon'ble Courts directive of 3th Dec 2010 and a details were provided in para 17 of our affidavit dated 13th Dec 2010. The closure notices issued to some establishments in the said Buffer Zone by the Tehsildar, Rangat stated in Para 3 of the affidavit dated 25th Dec 2010 by the Respondents were wrongly issued and they were subsequently withdrawn and clarification were issued by the A & N Administration to bring normalcy in the life of the settlers who are living here for more than 40-50 years. In para 15 of our affidavit of 13th Dec 2010 we have also provided the status of nature based tourism activities in the buffer zone, which are regulated. Para – 4 As per the Order dated 3-12-2010 passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, Deputy Commissioner (North and Middle Andmans), under whose administrative jurisdiction the Buffer Zone falling in the islands of Baratang and idle Andaman comes, vide Note dated 7th Dec 2010, authorised Tehsildar, Rangat to close all the operational commercial and tourist establishments and the restaurants whose bar licences were already already		postourents whose hars were cancelled earlier, were a details were provided in para 17 of our amdavit dated 13th Dec 2010. The closure notices issued to some establishments in the said Buffer Zone by the Tehsildar, Rangat stated in Para 3 of the affidavit dated 25th Dec 2010 by the Respondents were wrongly issued and they were subsequently withdrawn and clarification were issued by the A & N Administration to bring normalcy in the life of the settlers who are living here for more than 40-50 years. In para 15 of our affidavit of 13th Dec 2010 we have also provided the status of nature based tourism activities in the buffer zone, which are regulated. Para – 4 As per the Order dated 3-12-2010 passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, Deputy Commissioner (North and Middle Andmans), under whose administrative jurisdiction the Buffer Zone falling in the islands of Baratang and idle Andaman comes, vide Note dated 7th Dec 2010, authorised Tehsildar, Rangat to close all the operational commercial and tourist establishments and the restaurants whose bar licences were already already		closed after Hon'ble Courts directive of 3rd Dec 2010 and establishments in the said Buffer Zone by the Tehsildar, Rangat stated in Para 3 of the affidavit dated 25th Dec 2010 by the Respondents were wrongly issued and they were subsequently withdrawn and clarification were issued by the A & N Administration to bring normalcy in the life of the settlers who are living here for more than 40-50 years. In para 15 of our affidavit of 13th Dec 2010 we have also provided the status of nature based tourism activities in the buffer zone, which are regulated. Para – 4 As per the Order dated 3-12-2010 passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, Deputy Commissioner (North and Middle Andmans), under whose administrative jurisdiction the Buffer Zone falling in the islands of Baratang and idle Andaman comes, vide Note dated 7th Dec 2010, authorised Tehsildar, Rangat to close all the operational commercial and tourist establishments and the restaurants whose bar licences were already already		a details were provided in para 17 of our afficavit gated establishments in the said Buffer Zone by the Tensildar, Rangat stated in Para 3 of the affidavit dated 25th Dec 2010 by the Respondents were wrongly issued and they were subsequently withdrawn and clarification were issued by the A & N Administration to bring normalcy in the life of the settlers who are living here for more than 40-50 years. In para 15 of our affidavit of 13th Dec 2010 we have also provided the status of nature based tourism activities in the buffer zone, which are regulated. Para - 4 As per the Order dated 3-12-2010 passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, Deputy Commissioner (North and Middle Andmans), under whose administrative jurisdiction the Buffer Zone falling in the islands of Baratang and idle Andaman comes, vide Note dated 7th Dec 2010, authorised Tehsildar, Rangat to close all the operational commercial and tourist establishments and the restaurants whose bar licences were already already		13th Dec 2010 The closure notices issued to some Rangat stated in Para 3 of the affidavit dated 25th Dec 2010 by the Respondents were wrongly issued and they were subsequently withdrawn and clarification were issued by the A & N Administration to bring normalcy in the life of the settlers who are living here for more than 40-50 years. In para 15 of our affidavit of 13th Dec 2010 we have also provided the status of nature based tourism activities in the buffer zone, which are regulated. Para – 4 As per the Order dated 3-12-2010 passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, Deputy Commissioner (North and Middle Andmans), under whose administrative jurisdiction the Buffer Zone falling in the islands of Baratang and idle Andaman comes, vide Note dated 7th Dec 2010, authorised Tehsildar, Rangat to close all the operational commercial and tourist establishments and the restaurants whose bar licences were already already		ostablishments in the said Buffer Zone by the Tensildar, were subsequently withdrawn and clarification were issued by the A & N Administration to bring normalcy in the life of the settlers who are living here for more than 40-50 years. In para 15 of our affidavit of 13th Dec 2010 we have also provided the status of nature based tourism activities in the buffer zone, which are regulated. Para - 4 As per the Order dated 3-12-2010 passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, Deputy Commissioner (North and Middle Andmans), under whose administrative jurisdiction the Buffer Zone falling in the islands of Baratang and idle Andaman comes, vide Note dated 7th Dec 2010, authorised Tehsildar, Rangat to close all the operational commercial and tourist establishments and the restaurants whose bar licences were already already		Bangat stated in Para 3 of the affidavit dated 25th Dec
were subsequently withdrawn and clarification were issued by the A & N Administration to bring normalcy in the life of the settlers who are living here for more than 40-50 years. In para 15 of our affidavit of 13th Dec 2010 we have also provided the status of nature based tourism activities in the buffer zone, which are regulated. Para - 4 As per the Order dated 3-12-2010 passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, Deputy Commissioner (North and Middle Andmans), under whose administrative jurisdiction the Buffer Zone falling in the islands of Baratang and idle Andaman comes, vide Note dated 7th Dec 2010, authorised Tehsildar, Rangat to close all the operational commercial and tourist establishments and the restaurants whose bar licences were already already		Rangat stated in Fara of the wrongly issued and they issued by the A & N Administration to bring normally in the life of the settlers who are living here for more than 40-50 years. In para 15 of our affidavit of 13th Dec 2010 we have also provided the status of nature based tourism activities in the buffer zone, which are regulated. Para - 4 As per the Order dated 3-12-2010 passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, Deputy Commissioner (North and Middle Andmans), under whose administrative jurisdiction the Buffer Zone falling in the islands of Baratang and idle Andaman comes, vide Note dated 7th Dec 2010, authorised Tehsildar, Rangat to close all the operational commercial and tourist establishments and the restaurants whose bar licences were already already		2010 by the Respondents were wrongly rooted than were the life of the settlers who are living here for more than 40-50 years. In para 15 of our affidavit of 13th Dec 2010 we have also provided the status of nature based tourism activities in the buffer zone, which are regulated. Para - 4 As per the Order dated 3-12-2010 passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, Deputy Commissioner (North and Middle Andmans), under whose administrative jurisdiction the Buffer Zone falling in the islands of Baratang and idle Andaman comes, vide Note dated 7th Dec 2010, authorised Tehsildar, Rangat to close all the operational commercial and tourist establishments and the restaurants whose bar licences were already already		were subsequently william and charmoneter to bring normalcy in we have also provided the status of nature based tourism activities in the buffer zone, which are regulated. Para - 4 As per the Order dated 3-12-2010 passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, Deputy Commissioner (North and Middle Andmans), under whose administrative jurisdiction the Buffer Zone falling in the islands of Baratang and idle Andaman comes, vide Note dated 7th Dec 2010, authorised Tehsildar, Rangat to close all the operational commercial and tourist establishments and the restaurants whose bar licences were already already		issued by the A & N Administration to bring normally in
we have also provided the status of nature based tourism activities in the buffer zone, which are regulated. Para - 4 As per the Order dated 3-12-2010 passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, Deputy Commissioner (North and Middle Andmans), under whose administrative jurisdiction the Buffer Zone falling in the islands of Baratang and idle Andaman comes, vide Note dated 7th Dec 2010, authorised Tehsildar, Rangat to close all the operational commercial and tourist establishments and the restaurants whose bar licences were already already		the life of the settlers who are living nere lot more than
we have also provided the status of nature based tourism activities in the buffer zone, which are regulated. Para - 4 As per the Order dated 3-12-2010 passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, Deputy Commissioner (North and Middle Andmans), under whose administrative jurisdiction the Buffer Zone falling in the islands of Baratang and idle Andaman comes, vide Note dated 7th Dec 2010, authorised Tehsildar, Rangat to close all the operational commercial and tourist establishments and the restaurants whose bar licences were already already		40-50 years. In para 15 of our affidavit of 13th Dec 2010
tourism activities in the buffer zone, which are regulated. Para – 4 As per the Order dated 3-12-2010 passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, Deputy Commissioner (North and Middle Andmans), under whose administrative jurisdiction the Buffer Zone falling in the islands of Baratang and idle Andaman comes, vide Note dated 7th Dec 2010, authorised Tehsildar, Rangat to close all the operational commercial and tourist establishments and the restaurants whose bar licences were already already	1 4 4	we have also provided the status of nature based regulated. Para – 4 As per the Order dated 3-12-2010 passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, Deputy Commissioner (North and Middle Andmans), under whose administrative jurisdiction the Buffer Zone falling in the islands of Baratang and idle Andaman comes, vide Note dated 7th Dec 2010, authorised Tehsildar, Rangat to close all the operational commercial and tourist establishments and the restaurants whose bar licences were already already		tourism activities in the buffer zone, which are Para – 4 As per the Order dated 3-12-2010 passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, Deputy Commissioner (North and Middle Andmans), under whose administrative jurisdiction the Buffer Zone falling in the islands of Baratang and idle Andaman comes, vide Note dated 7th Dec 2010, authorised Tehsildar, Rangat to close all the operational commercial and tourist establishments and the restaurants whose bar licences were already already		regulated
Supreme Court of India, Deputy Commissioner (North and Middle Andmans), under whose administrative jurisdiction the Buffer Zone falling in the islands of Baratang and idle Andaman comes, vide Note dated 7 th Dec 2010, authorised Tehsildar, Rangat to close all the operational commercial and tourist establishments and the restaurants whose bar licences were already already	Poro 1	As per the Order dated 3-12-2010 passed by the Hon'ble and Middle Andmans), under whose administrative jurisdiction the Buffer Zone falling in the islands of Baratang and idle Andaman comes, vide Note dated 7th Dec 2010, authorised Tehsildar, Rangat to close all the operational commercial and tourist establishments and the restaurants whose bar licences were already already	raia - 4	Supreme Court of India Deputy Commissioner (North) jurisdiction the Buffer Zone falling in the Islands of Baratang and idle Andaman comes, vide Note dated 7th Dec 2010, authorised Tehsildar, Rangat to close all the operational commercial and tourist establishments and the restaurants whose bar licences were already already		and Middle Andmans) under whose administrative
Baratang and idle Andaman comes, vide Note dated 7th Dec 2010, authorised Tehsildar, Rangat to close all the operational commercial and tourist establishments and the restaurants whose bar licences were already already		and whole Andmans, and the islands of
Dec 2010, authorised Tehsildar, Rangat to close all the operational commercial and tourist establishments and the restaurants whose bar licences were already already		jurisdiction the Bullet Zone taking in the Island 7th operational commercial and tourist establishments and the restaurants whose bar licences were already already		Baratang and Idle Alidamali Colles, vide Note dated. the restaurants whose bar licences were already already		Dec 2010, authorised Tensildar, Kangat to close an the the restaurants whose bar licences were already already		operational commercial and tourist establishments and cancelled. Tehsildar, Rangat issued a Notice dated 6th		the restaurants whose bar licences were already already cancelled. Tehsildar, Rangat issued a Notice dated 6th

ОВС

X