The Hon'ble Supreme Court vide its order dated 5.3.2013 disposed of the SLP (C) 12125 of 2010. The Administration has sought a written opinion in the matter from Ld. Paras Kuhad, Additional Solicitor General of India and he has communicated his opinion dated 12.3.2013. In the concluding Para he has observed that

"Consequent upon the aforesaid, the operative legal regimen would be the regimen that has come into effect consequent upon the amendment of Regulations and the issuance of orders pursuant to such amended regulations. The administration is expected to act in strict accordance therewith and as long as the Administration acts in conformity with the amended regulations and the orders thereunder, their actions would not be assailable on the ground that such action is violative of the provisions/ position that existed till the date of disposal of Special Leave Petition".
