

out of the Reserve Area. Workers on road maintenance work etc go inside the reserve during the day, as and when required under proper escort and watch ward staff.

vii) The Deputy Director (Health) alongwith Paramedical staff of Directorate of Health Services visit the jarawa area regularly to make the assessment of health conditions and provide required care in the Jarawa area itself to the extent possible. In serious cases only jarawa patients are shifted to Hospital for further investigation and treatment.

viii) The Andaman and Nicobar Islands (Protection of Aboriginal Tribes) Regulation, 1956 makes adequate provision of the land and its protection for the benefit of Jarawas in the Island territory. The areas inhabited by the Scheduled Tribes of these islands have been declared as Tribal Reserve. The entry
