

Regulation, 1956 which protects the interest of the aboriginal Jarawa tribe in these islands has been amended by the Govt of India and brought into force w.e.f. 9.7.2012, provides stringent penal provisions for various violations. Besides anti-poaching exercises are regularly carried out by Navy in the high seas, Coasts Guard in the Coastal areas and by Police on the Coast line.

ix) That to protect the food resources in reserved area, three tasks Force Committees comprising of officials of AAJVS, Police and Forest Department have been constituted at Tirrur, Middle Strait and Kadamtala vide AAJVS order No. 200 dated 27.9.2006. They conduct regular anti poaching patrolling in the Jarawa Reserve Area.

RE REVIEW OF JARAWA POLICY

hewas