

of situation. to the respondents became necessary for change although in a modified form which, according number of steps suggested in the Master Plan that the Administration, however, has taken a It was further mentioned in the affidavit cannot be taken.

various steps suggested in the Master Plan change of the situation in the mean time and according to the respondents, because of Administration nor by the Government of India Mr. Award was neither accepted by the that the said Master Plan submitted by that it was the contention of the respondents It will appear from the said affidavit of the said Master Plan or otherwise.

or intend to take either by implementation which the Administration was already taking inter alia, indicating therein various steps after filed an affidavit affirmed on 2.8.99. It appears that the respondents there-experts. Language and their behaviour and also other persons being acquainted with the Jarawa an expert body consisting of Anthropologists road and their recent change of behaviour, by coming out from their forest habitat to the