The Chief Judicial Magistrate, Port Blair was appointed as the Member-Secretary of the Committee.

It thus appears that apart from Dr. Bhatcharya and Dr. Mukhopadhyay, no other Anthropologist in the said Committee.

By the aforesaid order dated 7.2.2000, the Division Bench after constituting such committee directed the said Committee to consider a number of questions namely, whether the Jarwas as a community/tribe need to be confined within their own territory or should be brought out and merged in the mainstream population; whether Jarwas need to be restrained from moving on the Andaman Trunk Road to avoid any accident either to themselves or to others; does Jarwa territory require to be demarcated and declared distinctly and clearly as a prohibited area and consequential action to be taken with regard thereto; whether there is any shortage of food articles and/or other life-saving material in the Jarwa territory and if so to suggest remedial measures; whether there is any threat of poaching inside the Jarwa territory and if so, to suggest means to prevent the same.
It was further directed by the Division Bench that the said Expert Committee treating the aforesaid terms of reference may itself vary.
