

It has been opted that although Jarawa reserve was created without properly understanding the Jarawas viewpoint about their territory, the reserved area should be protected at any cost and demarcation and subsequent protection of their reserve area would ensure conservation of a resource base which is essential for the survival of the Jarawas as long as they pursue their present economy and after proper demarcation of the Jarawa reserve, it is found that any part of the reserve area has been encroached upon by any non-Jarawas, for setting up of house/ village or for doing any agricultural or survey and preparing industrial maps. the Jarawas by carrying out ground level necessarily for demarcating the boundary of reserve area, and therefore, there is violaters of regulations applicable for the for any law enforcing agency to book the as a result whereof it is becoming impossible reserve are somewhat national and vague of 1957 and 1979 demarcating the Jarawa Committee opted that the gazette notification As to the second point of reference the would not be a wise act.

disturb and reverting the historical process by creating situation of physical isolation

