

The said SAME has also filed affidavits in the present public interest litigation. The Unges has been impeded as respondents factor carried out against little Andamanese and being writ petition no. 76 of 1999 against deves- for Andaman Nicobar Ecology (hereinafter referred to as the "SAME") which filed another writ petition non-governmental Organization, namely, Society, order of the Court, on an earlier occasion, a

It appears to this Court that under the

there does not appear to be any immediate solution. cated and fundamental things to which apparently, of resolving such issues, have created more compli- the instant public interest litigation now instead initially, seems to have been resolved, in fact, the main issues raised by the writ petitioner

In such circumstances, although apparently of the Expert Committee. the aforesaid recommendations and the suggestions indicating therein how they are seeking to implement Committee, the Administration has also filed a report After submission of such report by the said

provided with protective measures. being not in disadvantageous position should be enjoying the socioeconomic advantages, the Jarwas present situation, where one group of people is of the society dominating over another and in the

