

of the Jarawas. Mr. Pandya who appears to have a well thought out stand in relation to future experts and scholars are brought together to take further opinion that it is time that policy makers, made culturally safe and controlled. He has region, is inevitable and the same needs to be with the outside world, as happened in Kadamattalla further opined that the contact of Jarawas Jarawas from their present location. He has also advocated against any attempt to move the Victoria University, Wellington, New Zealand has and belonging to the Department of Anthropology, Dr. Vishvajit Pandya also an anthropologist self-dependent lives. their security and their ability to live, their rights to land, their health, situation is to safeguard with all possible and the role of the Administration in the present the Jarawas should be left to decide their future disaster. He has further strongly opined that in other parts of the world has resulted in a of the Jarawas pointing out that such an attempt He has strongly opined against the settlement situation the Jarawas are begging along the road. urgently needed to establish exactly under what further opined that the careful research is the problem of hunger or malnutrition, he has unlikely that the Jarawas are suffering from

