

a different area, as according to them that Administration to resettle the Jarawas in their opinion against any attempt of the sociologists that all of them are unanimous in of the above-mentioned anthropologists and

It will thus appear from the opinions from encroachment.

their 1957 limits and they must be protected their reserves must be retained or resorted must be imposed on them and the borders of voluntarily and at their own pace and no change be allowed the freedom to make their changes such process will be slow and they must come into more contact with outsiders, but inevitably change in the coming years, as they

He has further opined that the Jarawa will now in danger of being taken away from them.

of the Jarawa by the Government of India is that a reservation created in the homeland lands and teach them agriculture. He opined

Native American indigenous tribes onto other American government to move traditional that similar was the result attempted by the reduction in number. He has pointed out

It ended in tragic results in drastic and impose change on the Andaman Negritos.

Colonial government attempted to civilize pointed out that hundred years ago the British Jarawas from their land and way of life. He

