

any recommendation relating to such problem did not occur.

It appears that a number of study and research were undertaken by the Anthropological Survey of India of the Indigenous tribes of Andaman including the Jarawas who has published a number of reports.

In this connection, it will be worthwhile to quote hereunder few extracts from the book 'The Jarawa' by Shri Jayanta Sarkar, wherefrom it will appear how the government has taken steps relating to the problem of the primitive tribal groups including the Jarawas, and what was the recommendations by different Committees constituted by the government including Sudaram Committee.
