

In our view in this connection a reference should also be made to a master plan which was prepared for the welfare of primitive tribes of Andaman and Nicobar Islands for the period 1991-2021 by Sri S.A. Awaradi. The said Sri Awaradi who at the relevant point of time was the Director of the Tribal Welfare, Andaman and Nicobar Administration, after an in-depth study into the problems by the indigenous tribes of Andaman and Nicobar Islands including the Jarawas and other consultation with the various experts under the sponsorship of the Administration of the Andaman and Nicobar Islands prepared such Master Plan and the same

confined in the jungle. why the Administration should take steps to keep them people and therefore at this stage, there is no reason being eager to adopt the way of life of non-tribal Jarawas are coming out to meet the non-tribal people make contacts with them with food and gifts, the habit and for pursuing a policy for a long time of Administration to protect the Jarawas in their The petitioner has submitted that for the failure please the scientists and to attract the tourists to preserve tribal culture in its colour and beauty to Zoos and Museums has long been dead and we do not want table even if it is possible, the old controversy about in modern world is impossible, it would not be desirable
