

The petitioner, therefore, has prayed for a writ in the nature of Mandamus directing the respondents to provide immediately all sorts of facilities of modern life and for their protection by re-habilitation them in their habitat as has been done in the case of Ongas and Adamanties. An interim order was also prayed for directing to render help to the Jarawas forthwith by making camps in their area by providing necessary and timely nutritious food and medicine.

The petitioner has expressed her views that now the Jarawas themselves come out to the open for search of food and they are willing to join the main stream of life. All efforts must be made by the Administration for teaching them to lead a normal civilised life within their own habitat just as which has been done by the Administration in the case of other indigenous tribes of Andaman & Nicobar Islands like Ongas and the Adamanties.

of food, there is no reason why the Administration should not take immediate and effective steps for their settlement, making provisions for their sufficient food by plantation of trees like coconut, Bananas and otherwise.
