

(a) After the total size of the State's Annual Plan is decided with the approval of the Planning Commission, the Planning Department, as a policy, should decide the Outlay to be made available for Tribal Sub-Plan.

recommendations are given below:-
Implementing the Tribal Sub-Plan. Some of the important in the present process and methodology followed for the Sub Committee has recommended certain fundamental changes presented its report to Government in the month of July, 1991 methodology to achieve the same. This sub Committee if not what changes need to be made in the present the objectives mentioned above, in effect, are achieved an implementation of the Tribal Sub-Plan and to see whether appointed to study the present methodology of formulation Board under the Chairmanship of Shri D.M. Sukhthankar was an expert sub committee of the Members of the State Planning N. STB-1091/CR-9/Yojana-23, dated the 21st January, 1991

- Under Government Resolution, Planning Department 3.
- (i) To improve the standard and quality of life of tribals.
 - (ii) To tackle important problems facing the tribals and eliminate their exploitation.
 - (iii) Speeding up the process of their social and economic development.
 - (iv) Ensuring a reasonable share of the fruits of State's planned economic and social development efforts to the Tribals through equitable distribution of the plan expenditure to tribal areas and for development of Tribals.