

- continue in future also.
- diversity of the Tribal Sub-Plan grants should budget grants. The present condition of non putting up consolidated demands and obtaining the Department should continue the present method of finalise the Tribal Sub-Plan. The Tribal Development outlays made available for various schemes, should as mentioned above and after taking into account the for preparation of all sectoral programmes/schemes (i) The Tribal Development Department take necessary steps ^{should} cross drainage works should be given priority.
- onal handicrafts connecting roads, small bridges and cottage industries based on local resources, traditional and nurtured by tribals, horticulture, small and development, crop husbandry which would be accepted child and family welfare, scheme of agricultural informal general and occupational education, mothers nation, protection and conservation, formal and facilities of clean drinking water, forest rejuv- irrigation scheme, soil and water conservation, the tribals such as minor irrigation works, lift whereas local schemes which would necessarily benefit etc. should be given comparatively low priority.
- major irrigation projects, major and medium industries, national and state highways, major bridges programmes in the Tribal Sub-Plan, the works of (e) While considering inclusion of capital intensive being finally approved by the Planning Department.
- ment on the same analogy of the District Annual Plan Tribal Sub-Plan. The District annual tribal sub-plan should be approved by the Tribal Development Department prepare a general district plan and a separate District. would increase. On these lines the D.P.D.s. should through which the incomes of the poor tribal families of financial assistance according to local conditions.