Department, which will, in turn, allocate to the sectoral departments taking into account the schemes prepared by them for the development of the Scheduled Tribes. In such an arrangement, the Tribal Welfare Department will be able to decide priorities of the schemes to be implemented in the tribal area and will be able to relate them to the felt needs of the tribals. With adoption of this system, the existing practice of showing quantification of fund under each sector and allocation of fund to the sectoral departments directly will be done away with.
