

Under the Tribal Dev.
Commissi-
- oner
Coordinates

The Director Primitive Group Development with necessary subordinate staff under the Tribal Development Commissioner coordinates staff, all programmes of primitive groups. In addition to this, there are 9 Extension Officers appointed in all the six ITDPs having population of primitive groups and three in Ahmedabad, Surendranagar and Junagadh districts. Besides there are 25 Gram Sevaks. In the area covered by the Tribal Area sub-plan the development programmes of primitive groups are implemented through the Project Administrators and in areas outside ITDP's through the District Development Officers and Taluk as Development Officers.

Andaman & Nicobar Islands

There is an autonomous Organisation named Andaman Adim Janjati Vikas Samithi (AAJVS). The Administrator (Lt. Governor) and the Chief Secretary of Andaman & Nicobar Islands Administration are respectively the Chairman and Vice-Chairman of AAJVS with an Executive Council, Advisory Committee and a General body.

The General Body of the AAJVS comprises of all the Heads of the Deptts. and other Senior Officers of the Administration and Anthropological Survey of India, Port Blair.

The Samithi has a full time Executive Secretary with field functionaries.

Rajasthan

Not Available.