

2. A widely recognized and acclaimed mass movement organized by the NGO or an individual Human Rights Activist to eradicate untouchability and combat/ prevent offences of atrocities against Scheduled Castes which had made considerable impact in the society, may also be taken into consideration while deciding an award.